DATE: August 30, 2006

MEMO NO: STY-001

DISTRIBUTE TO: Zone Leaders, Region Leaders and Zone Office Managers
FROM: Study Department - Shin Yatomi
SUBJECT: Buddhist Learning Review Facilitators Video/Teleconference on September 9, 2006 1:00 PM PDT/4:00 PM PDT

As a reminder, the SGI-USA Study Department is holding a nationwide Buddhist Learning Review facilitators' video-teleconference as announced in the SGI-USA memos STY-012 and STY-013 issued on December 1, 2005. If you have already planned activities on September 9, please utilize the audio streaming or the podcast. The audio playback by telephone is recommended for a group activity—as opposed to individuals calling in—due to its expense.

The details of the video-teleconference are as follows:

Date: Sat., September 9, 2006

Time: 1:00 pm — 2:00 pm PDT / 4:00 pm — 5:00 pm EDT

For Whom: All SGI-USA leaders designated by the zones to facilitate the Buddhist Learning Review in October are encouraged to attend this video-teleconference. District-level and above leaders can be considered.

Materials: SGI-USA Buddhist Learning Review: 2006 Study Guide and *The Facilitators' Guide

* The Facilitators' Guide is attached to this memo. It would be helpful if each participant could have a copy at your video or teleconference location. Both materials are also available on the study department Web site: www.sgi-usa-study.org.

This video-teleconference includes: a presentation by the Study Department youth staff on how to facilitate the Review activities; a summary of the study material by Study Department Leader Shin Yatomi; and closing remarks by SGI-USA General Director Danny Nagashima.

Wherever video hookup is not possible, please gather in centralized locations to participate by teleconference.

If you have any questions about this video-teleconference, please contact your local SGI-USA leaders or e-mail your questions to study@sgi-usa.org. Thank you very much for all your support of the SGI-USA's Buddhist learning efforts!
